How to Use This System

1 Pick a subject tab

Each subject has its own color, so you always know where you are.

2 Fill the Study Guide

Write the unit, the big ideas, key words and 3 questions you think will be on the test.

3 Make Flashcards

Question on the left card, answer on the right. Cover the right side and quiz yourself.

4 Build a Cheat Sheet

Squish the whole unit onto one page. Making it IS studying (even if you can't use it in the test).

5 Review on a schedule

Use Spaced Review: Day 1, 3, 7, 14. Color a dot each time you review.

6 Duplicate pages

In GoodNotes or Notability, duplicate any page when you need more units or cards.

Study Methods That Actually Work

pick one, try it for 15 min

Blurting

Close your notes. Write everything you remember. Check what you missed in a new color.

Tried it? ☐ yes Rating: ☆☆☆☆☆

Feynman

Explain it like you're teaching a 10-year-old. Stuck? That's the part to study.

Tried it? ☐ yes Rating: ☆☆☆☆☆

Active Recall

Quiz yourself instead of re-reading. Flashcards and practice questions win.

Tried it? ☐ yes Rating: ☆☆☆☆☆

Spaced Review

Short reviews spread over days beat one long cram night.

Tried it? ☐ yes Rating: ☆☆☆☆☆

Pomodoro

Study 25 min, break 5. Brain buzzing? Try 10 min sprints instead.

Tried it? ☐ yes Rating: ☆☆☆☆☆

Doodle It

Turn notes into a mind map, comic strip or timeline. Color = memory.
